I am a passionate storyteller with an eye for telling visually appealing and meaningful content. I've covered various topics, from Pennsylvania's contentious midterm races, a deadly factory explosion that made national headlines, and the 2022 World Series. Currently seeking new opportunities.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Multimedia Journalist | June 2022 - Present

WPMT-TV | 2005 S. Queen St. York, PA 17403

Enterprise, write, shoot, and edit stories to provide context and digestibility to the news of the day for broadcast and digital audiences in order to compete in a four-station capital market. Daily work provides critical information and its impacts to our audience in a humanizing and relatable way. Work also includes long-form journalism, telling community feature stories and in-depth data reporting. Critical thinking, timeliness, and flexibility are key aspects of the daily workflow, often to provide the lead story for the FOX43 News at Ten brand.

Weekend Producer | June 2022 - January 2024

WPMT-TV | 2005 S. Queen St. York, PA 17403

Crafted the Friday and Saturday 10 p.m. newscasts prioritizing the latest local, state, and national content to viewers in the Susquehanna Valley. Duties included organizing resources, building a rundown of engaging and newsworthy stories, and commanding the control room during shows.

Multimedia Journalist | September 2020 - May 2022

KOMU-TV | 5550 U.S. 63 Columbia, MO 65201

Developed the foundational skills of broadcast news by curating lead stories told through a visual medium. Daily responsibilities included enterprising multiple stories, providing a live presence on air, and taking a digital-first approach to proving information to our audience.
